

GODDARD HAS A BIG STICK

And Took It Out for Exhibition on Saturday

BURLINGTON HIGH LOST

The Visiting Pitchers Were Easy Problems, While Smith Kept the Hits Scattered—Score 14 to 4.

Goddard's victory added another victory to its string Saturday afternoon by winning a decisive victory over the Burlington high school, the final score being 14 to 4. As the Burlington team is supposed to be one of the strongest high school nines in the state, the game was an important one for Goddard to win. The game was featured by the heavy hitting on the part of Goddard, who batted Burlington's best pitcher, Chase, out of the box in the eighth inning, and aided by three fielding errors by Sampson, who succeeded Chase in the box, rolled up seven scores.

Besides pitching a strong game, Smith at Goddard cleared the ball for two doubles. Boynton binged out a three-bagger and a single and Wishart and Spaulding each hit for two sacks.

Burlington made the first tally of the game in the first half of the second inning, when Hamilton rapped out a single into center field and circled the bases on Smith's error. In the next two innings, but in the last half of the eighth Goddard landed on Chase and cinched the game. Sector, the first man up, started the trouble for Chase by scaling the left fence for a two-bagger and Smith followed with another in the same place, scoring Sector. Spaulding hit to the pitcher and Smith was caught between second and third, but got to third on Rockwell's dropping the ball as it was being thrown back and forth with Hughes. Shina singled into left, scoring Smith.

Cent. O'Keefe then took Chase out and called in Sampson from center field. He was unable, however, to stem the tide and Berry landed on him for a single. In the meantime Spaulding scored on the pitcher's throw to second to catch Shina. Wishart drew a base on balls. Lee then worked the squeeze play to perfection, tapping the ball at the pitcher's feet and scoring the third. Lee was thrown out at first. In an attempt to catch Berry off third, Sampson threw wild and both Berry and Wishart scored. "Bunk" Boynton then got a good share of his 200 pounds behind his bat and lammed out a three-bagger into deep left. Scampini hit in front of the plate and Sampson threw wild to the catcher, scoring Boynton. Sector flied out to center and Smith, the eleventh man to bat in the inning, went out on an assist by O'Keefe, ending the inning.

The visitors tried hard in the ninth, but a pretty double play shut them out. With one down, Sweet got first on Shiga's wild throw to first and went second on Murphy's single to left. O'Keefe binged a hot grounder at Wishart, which he fumbled, and Sweet reached third. Hughes then hit to Smith, who threw to Berry, cutting out Sweet, and Berry completed the double by throwing out Hughes at first.

Notes on the Game.

Burlington is weak in its pitching staff.

It was a great day for Smith: made one double play unassisted, started another, hit the ball for two doubles and pitched gutty-edged ball.

On account of illness Shina did not go into the game until the seventh. Scampini, who took his place in short, was missed in his position in center field.

Both of Hamilton's hits, which resulted in home runs, ought to have been stopped.

The Goddard players yelling "water pit" at the visiting catcher when he was after a foul fly is not clean base ball.

It, as Cosby let the ball roll through him.

Goddard, however, more than evened this up in their half by scoring three runs. Scampini opened the inning with a single and stole second. Sector hit to the pitcher and Scampini was thrown out at third. Sector stole second and Smith drew a pass. "Chuck" Spaulding then lammed a two-bagger over the left field fence that scored Sector. According to the ground rules on this kind of a hit, Smith had to hang up at third.

Cosby flied out to center and Berry hit to the pitcher, who threw to first. Sweet let the ball through his hands and both Smith and Spaulding scored. Wishart flied out to the catcher.

In the third inning the visitors got in two runs and tied the score, a bunch of three singles and a sacrifice scoring Murphy and O'Keefe. In Goddard's half, Lee, Scampini and Sector fanned, having Boynton at second, which he reached on an error and a passed ball.

In the last of the fourth, Goddard took the lead with three tallies, Smith getting first on the pitcher's fumble and being forced to second on Spaulding's walk. A wild pitch went them around another base.

Cosby went out on an assist to the pitcher, and Smith scored. Berry then rapped out a single into right, scoring Spaulding. Berry stole second and scored on Wishart's double over the left fence. Lee flied out to the pitcher.

Goddard added one more in the fifth. Boynton opened with a single and was sacrificed to second by Scampini. Sector fanned, but a two-bagger over the left fence by Smith sent Boynton across the plate. Spaulding fanned.

Burlington got their last point in the sixth, when Hamilton landed on the ball again and sent it over the center fielder's head and down the bank for a home run, Chase fanned. Sweet singled into center.

Murphy popped up a fly towards first, which Smith caught and ran across the first base for a neat double play. Unassisted, Sweet having started off first for second.

Burlington went out in order in its half of the next two innings, but in the last half of the eighth Goddard landed on Chase and cinched the game. Sector, the first man up, started the trouble for Chase by scaling the left fence for a two-bagger and Smith followed with another in the same place, scoring Sector. Spaulding hit to the pitcher and Smith was caught between second and third, but got to third on Rockwell's dropping the ball as it was being thrown back and forth with Hughes. Shina singled into left, scoring Smith.

Cent. O'Keefe then took Chase out and called in Sampson from center field. He was unable, however, to stem the tide and Berry landed on him for a single. In the meantime Spaulding scored on the pitcher's throw to second to catch Shina. Wishart drew a base on balls. O'Keefe binged a hot grounder at Wishart, which he fumbled, and Sweet reached third. Hughes then hit to Smith, who threw to Berry, cutting out Sweet, and Berry completed the double by throwing out Hughes at first.

ON COLLEGE DIAMONDS.

Vermont Beats Dartmouth—Harvard Beats Princeton.

Dartmouth could not beat Vermont at Burlington Saturday. Brown tied the scores with Holy Cross by beating the latter on its own field, 4 to 2. Harvard added to its fame by blanking the "Tigers," and Yale suffered a similar fate before Pennsylvania. Harvard's record is by far the best of any of the college nines. Cornell beat Columbia in a fast game, and Lafayette won its game of the year from Lehigh. Trinity was a snap for Williams. The results of Saturday's games follow:

At Cambridge, Harvard 6, Princeton 0.
At Worcester, Brown 4, Holy Cross 2.
At Williamstown, Williams 11, Trinity 1.
At Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 2, Yale 0.
At Ithaca, N. Y., Cornell 5, Columbia 0.
At Easton, Pa., Lafayette 2, Lehigh 0.
At Burlington, Vermont 3, Dartmouth 2.

At Middlebury, Besselaer "Tech" 12, Middlebury 0.
At New York, Fordham 10, Delaware 0.

VERMONT WINS IN SIXTH.

Bunched Hits and Wild Throw to Third Beats Dartmouth—Collins Hit Freely.

Burlington, May 17.—In the fastest game played here this season, Vermont trimmed Dartmouth Saturday afternoon, 3 to 2. The trick was neatly turned in the sixth inning, when Vermont tore off five of its six hits. A wild shot at third base completed the winning combination, and a trio of basemen entered across the pan. Up to this round, Dartmouth had been a puzzle, not a Vermont being able to get a hit off him. In the eighth he was replaced by Ganley. Dartmouth hit Collins quite freely, but was unable to bunch except in the third, when three singles and Williams' wild home over first let in two runs. An infield shake-up on the Vermont team occurred at this point and the visitors did not get another look-in. The score:

Vermont 0 0 0 0 3 0 0 -3

WONDERFUL BALL BY BOSTON TEAM

Defeated Detroit in Opening Game of Series, 3 to 2, at Detroit Yesterday—A Scrap Indulged In.

Detroit, Mich., May 17.—Yesterday's game won by Boston, 3 to 2, had an exciting wind-up. Moriarty tried to steal home with two down in the ninth and was caught coming in. Carrigan and the runner had a mix-up after the play was completed, the catcher striking at Moriarty as he lay on the ground. Other players got in before any harm was done, but it was necessary to spirit the Boston catcher away from the park to avoid trouble. It was a close and exciting game all the way. Boston fielded in wonderful style and mixed its hits with two of the Detroit errors for success. The fielding of Spoor, Wagner and McConnell featured. The score:

A POWERFUL THROW.

McGrath Hurlled Hammer Over 177 Feet at New York Yesterday.

New York, May 17.—Matthew McGrath, the New York Athletic club's world's champion sixteen-pound thrower, attained a new world's record of 177 feet 4 inches in that event yesterday, but in view of the fact the throw was not made from a metal rimmed, seven-foot circle, the mark will not be accepted under the rules of the Amateur Athletic Union. The big fellow performed the feat at Cretia Park, L. I., at the track and field games of the Brooklyn Postoffice clerks.

Aside from the absence of the metal rimmed circle the throw was perfect. Three A. A. U. field judges were present and measured the distance. McGrath did practically the same thing last year, exceeding 170 feet which was not allowed because the measurement was not made with a steel tape.

McGrath said he feels no apprehension of breaking his record of 173 feet 9 inches before the summer passes.

SENATE DOWN TO BUSINESS

Progress Made With Steel Schedules

ALLEGED $9,000,000 JOKER

A Duty of 45 Per Cent. on Structural Steel—No Cheaper Razors—Senator Gore Leads a Skirmish.

Washington, May 17.—The Senate got down to business Saturday in a manner pleasing to Senator Root, who had advised it on the day before only at the cost of some castigation, and yet the procedure was also along lines of approved senatorial and legislative methods, thus gratifying Senator Money who had read a lecture to Mr. Root in disapproval of the employment of business methods in Senate legislation. Perhaps the senators were used up by the excitement of the day before, but he thought as it may they managed to pass upon nine pages of the tariff bill, which was certainly making progress, and Senator Aldrich was so pleased that he permitted the Senate to adjourn a half-hour earlier than usual. There was not one roll-call adopted, and that, too, in the important steel schedule. Three reductions were permitted by grace of the finance committee. This was pointed out to the apoplexy of Senator Beveridge: "The way to proceed is to concede."

An important reduction was made on structural steel material. The House rate was three-tenths of a cent a pound and the finance committee had made it four tenths of a cent a pound, and on motion of Mr. Aldrich the House rate was restored. Mr. Aldrich, however, recording his apprehension that a great injustice was being done to a great industry. In connection with this paragraph there is a so-called "joke" putting structural material advanced beyond hammering, rolling and casting or assembling into the basket clause and thus subject to a duty of 45 per cent ad valorem. Senator Cummins intends later to offer an amendment taking care of this "joke," which is said to make a present of $9,000,000 annually to the steel people. The need of it, however, was explained by a statement that recently great structures had been put up in New York of foreign steel. The very substantial reduction was made on barbed and fence wire from 24 cents in the bill to three-fourths of a cent a pound. This amendment was offered by Senator Burkett of Nebraska and accepted by the finance committee. It was said that Senator Burkett was prepared to make the fight of his life for this amendment, for the impression it would have on his constituents, and so he refused to him when he is a candidate for re-election two years hence. Mr. Aldrich deprived him of the display of his courage during the day, despite his having conceded to point with pride at something he accomplished.

On shavings the committee offered an amendment putting a duty of 25 per
